

1. Which illnesses can be treated?

In my experience and according to the literature in this field almost all chronic illnesses. By acute illnesses there are limits, e.g. by a car accident; classical homeopathy can help to get over the shock, but the other aspects must be treated in the surgery and emergency room by school medicine. Generally it must be cleared in every individual case. If you have questions, just send a mail or call me.